SUBJECT:—Instructions regarding the deductions for repayment of House Building Advances in view of Government Order No. Fl. 6102-6151—G. F. 115-31-10, dated 26th January 1932.

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, BANGALORE.

Circular No. 214—M.A.D., dated 8th February 1932.

To

(1) All Treasury Officers

(2) Heads of Departments and Offices and Disbursing Officers.

With reference to Government Order No. Fl. 6102-6151—G. F. 115-31-10, dated 26th January 1932, laying down certain rules for regulating, during the period of salary cut, the monthly deductions towards the repayment of House Building Advances obtained by officers whose unreduced salary is Rs. 250 and below, the following instructions are issued :—

(1) The drawer of the bill is responsible for obtaining the requisite sanction of the Head of the Department before the reduction in the amount of instalment is given effect to, and the Head of the Department after satisfying himself of the adequacy of the security for the full adjustment of the debt may order the reduction in the amount of instalment by 50 per cent or to the extent of the salary cut whichever is less.

(2) In the remarks column of the deduction statement attached to the bill, the drawer of the bill has to state the fact that the requisite sanction of the Head of the Department for the reduction in the amount of instalment has been obtained and enter the number and date of such sanction. Copies of such sanctions will be sent by the Head of the Department to the Audit Office.

(3) The amount of monthly rate of interest already fixed by the Audit Office in accordance with the equated system of payments will remain unchanged notwithstanding the reduction in the amount of instalments.

(4) After the salary cut is withdrawn and the repayment on the basis of the original instalment is resumed, the total amount of interest due on the loan and that already paid by each advance holder will be recalculated and the change in the amount of interest to be deducted monthly thereafter will be intimated by the Audit Office.

(5) In the case of advances completely repaid during the period of salary cut, recalculation of interest will be made by the Audit Office at the time of closing the account and the difference if any will be adjusted either by recovery or refund as the case may be.
